From Anne Gilleran - 09.11.2010
For the last two days I have been participating at the Eminent Conference in Copenhagen organised by the European Schoolnet and 30 of the Ministries of Education in Europe. Focus is on using ICT in teaching. There was a really thought provoking address by Pedro Franscsc from the OECD who spoke about the emerging divides in society. At the moment I am listening to Jill Cousins talking about the resources available at Europeana www.europeana.eu. Interesting that several eTwinning projects among the finalists including the winner of the Outstanding Teacher Award won by the project Filming the Poem submitted by an Irish teacher. more later.....
